LENDING A HELPING HAND TO PATIENTS IN NEED

About Arms for All

Losing a limb is an emotional and physical blow- then the financial burden often piles on.

As Drs. Gaston and Loeffler witnessed the growth of the OrthoCarolina Reconstructive Center for Lost Limbs, they found some patients were not able to bridge the financial gap to afford a prosthesis following the loss of a limb.

That's where Arms For All comes in!

Who qualifies for an Arms for All prosthetic grant?

Arms for All grant applications are reviewed by a board of trustees, and will be awarded based on need. Our hope and dream for this organization is that, in time, we will one day be able to broaden our reach to patients outside of our region.
